Description: After fermentation, our Lagrein is placed in barrique barrels (small oak barrels) where it is left to age for a year. After maturing, it presents itself with garnet red color and delicate aromas of violets and cherries, underlined by a fine oak wood tone reminiscent of vanilla. Strong tannins with a pleasant acidity give this Lagrein a long finish. Best enjoyed starting late 2025.

Recommended with: This wine pairs well with game, red meat and cheese.
